

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Let's Talk About It: Pulitzer Prize Winning Books

Lewiston, Idaho - February 16, 2017 – The Lewiston City Library will host a book discussion series in March and April. This program will take place on Tuesdays at 6:30pm - March 14th and 28th, and April 11th and 25th.

“Let’s Talk About It” is a statewide program supported by the Idaho Commission for Libraries and the Idaho Humanities Council. The program groups together humanities, scholars, and public libraries to discuss literature that explore American values, history, culture, aging, and much more.

The selected theme for this year is “Pulitzer Prize Winning Books.” The year 2016 marked the 100th awarding of the Pulitzer Prizes, the country’s most prestigious award and most sought-after accolades in journalism, literature and music.

Program Dates	Reading Selections	Guest Presenters
March 14	Growing Up by Russell Baker	Paula Coomer
March 28	Pilgrim at Tinker Creek by Annie Dillard	Barbara Meldrum
April 11	The Grapes of Wrath by John Steinbeck	Georgia Tiffany
April 25	Honey in the Horn by H.L.Davis	Mary Clearman Blew

Multiple book copies are available for check-out along with book summaries and discussion questions. Everyone is welcome.
